COMMON QUESTIONS

Can I combine discounts? Eligible customers can combine the Lifeline, PCAD, and/or Life-Support discounts. And, also receive the LIHEAP assistance with no impact to other benefits.

Do I need to provide a social security number to apply to LADWP discounts and programs? No. Any LADWP customer can apply for our discounts and programs. You will still need to meet eligibility rules for each program.

Does utility assistance count for public charge purposes? Utility assistance is not considered for public charge purposes. Visit chhs.ca.gov/public-charge-guide to learn more.

Do I need a social security number to apply for LIHEAP? Anyone 18 years or older and living in your household full-time can apply (such as an adult child, roommate, or relative). The applicant must have a social security number. The applicant's name does not need to be on the bill.

Do I have to pay this money back? No. These programs are to help households with their utility bills.

Are LIHEAP benefits taxable? No. For residential customers, these programs do not count as income and are not taxable.
